Welcome to Jesus Journey

Every one of us is somewhere on a journey: toward God, through doubt, in the middle of growing.

The Jesus Journey Survey gives you an honest picture of your present journey. This guide helps you prayerfully respond to what you noticed.

This is not a test. Your report is not a label, a grade, or a verdict. It is an invitation to discover where Jesus may be meeting you, strengthening you, and inviting you to take a next step.

Over four weeks, you will name a growth edge, practise one or two simple responses, receive support from others, and create a realistic 30-day practice.

Our hope is that you will finish with deeper hope in Jesus and renewed confidence that, with his grace and the support of others, you can step forward into growth.

BRING

Your individual report, this workbook, and a Bible in a translation you find readable. Read the listed passages together; no specialist knowledge is needed.

USE DIGITALLY

Download a personal copy, type into the white fields, then save. Test one field and reopen the file before writing more. If your viewer cannot save forms, use a PDF reader or the print version.

KEEP IT PERSONAL

Your reflections belong to you. Share only what you choose. Short notes are enough; use a private journal if you need more space.

Our Group Agreements

Share freely, never under pressure.

You choose what to share from your report. Passing is always welcome.

Do not compare scores.

We are here to listen for Jesus, not rank one another.

Listen without fixing.

Receive one another with grace and curiosity. Ask before offering advice.

Keep confidence.

Do not repeat personal stories outside the group. If someone may be at risk of harm, seek appropriate help rather than promise secrecy.

Practise one small step.

Growth is not a performance. Celebrate honest attempts and begin again with grace.

JOURNEY GUIDE

Your role is not to evaluate anyone's spiritual life or provide every answer. Create a safe, prayerful space for honest reflection, encouragement, and one faithful next step.

Begin Where You Are

One strength or encouragement I noticed in my report:

One pathway where I sense an invitation to grow:

One question I want to bring to Jesus:

One hope I have for these four weeks:

Encourage. Gently challenge. Return to grace.

A simple 80-minute rhythm

- 10 min Arrive and reconnect
- 15 min Look back at last week’s practice
- 20 min Read Scripture and explore
- 20 min Read your report and reflect
- 15 min Choose one step and pray

WEEK 1 ADJUSTMENT

Use the look-back time for introductions and group agreements.

ENCOURAGE

Notice grace, courage, and honest effort. Ask: “Where do you see Jesus already meeting you?”

GENTLY CHALLENGE

Ask rather than prescribe: “What might one small, specific step look like this week?”

RETURN TO GRACE

A missed practice is not failure. Ask: “What did you notice, and how might you begin again?”

MAKE ROOM

For 6–12 adults, use pairs or triads so everyone has time. Welcome different cultures, ages, abilities, and levels of faith familiarity.

01

Your Journey With Jesus

Growth begins with honest attention to where we are and trust that Jesus meets us there.

THIS WEEK

Name a strength, a growth edge, and one hopeful next step.

Notice

Receive

Reflect

Serve

Read, notice, and share

OPENING PRACTICE

Take two minutes of quiet. Breathe naturally and pray: "Jesus, help me notice your presence and your invitation today."

Read John 15:1–8

What do you notice about remaining close to Jesus? How is this different from trying harder on your own?

NOTICE

Read your report privately. You do not need to disclose scores or anything that feels too personal.

BEGIN TOGETHER

Introduce yourselves and revisit the Group Agreements. You may pass on any question.

Discuss

- 01 What did you notice or appreciate as you looked at your report?
- 02 What area of growth feels most life-giving or important right now?
- 03 What makes it difficult to be honest about your spiritual journey?

Make it personal

RETURN TO YOUR REPORT

Find one encouraging statement and one invitation in your individual report. Notice what resonates, not just which score is lowest.

A GENTLE INVITATION

Write a few honest words. You can keep the same pathway throughout these four weeks. You do not need to improve everything at once.

In your report, "My Identity" is the pathway called "Identity in God" here.

A strength I want to thank Jesus for:

A growth edge I want to bring before Jesus:

The pathway I will focus on during these four weeks:

My Next Faithful Step

Choose one, or adapt a report invitation.

- Begin each day by asking, "Jesus, what are you inviting me to notice today?"
- End each day by naming one moment of gratitude.
- Take a ten-minute walk without headphones and attend to God's presence. A quiet seated pause works too.
- Read John 15 once during the week and write down one phrase that stays with you.

CLOSING PRAYER

Jesus, thank you that you meet us with grace exactly where we are. Give us courage to respond to your invitation, strength for the next faithful step, and love for one another as we walk this journey together. Amen.

I will practise:

I will do this on:

I will ask this person to encourage me:

JOURNEY GUIDE NOTE

Affirm honesty, desire, courage, and small efforts. Help each person choose one realistic next step. Do not press anyone to share scores or personal details.

02

Trusting and Experiencing Jesus

Trust and experience grow as we receive Jesus' love, pay attention to his presence, and respond in small acts of faith.

THIS WEEK

Choose one simple way to receive love, practise trust, or become attentive.

Notice

Receive

Reflect

Serve

Read, notice, and share

OPENING PRACTICE

Pause and pray: "Jesus, I trust you with what is unfinished in me."

Read Psalm 139:23–24; Mark 9:14–29

What room do these passages make for honest uncertainty? What would it mean to bring your real self to Jesus?

NOTICE

Trusting includes God's story, love, identity, and facing challenges. Experiencing includes responding, communicating, growing in faith, and worshipping.

LOOK BACK

What did you practise? What did you notice? There is no need for an impressive result.

Discuss

- 01 Which pathway in these two areas feels most alive or most difficult for you right now?
- 02 What helps you recognize God's presence or leading in ordinary life?
- 03 Where might Jesus be asking for trust rather than certainty?

Make it personal

RETURN TO YOUR REPORT

Return to the Trusting and Experiencing sections of your report. Choose one statement to explore. You may keep your original pathway rather than add a new practice.

A GENTLE INVITATION

Write a few honest words. You can keep the same pathway throughout these four weeks. You do not need to improve everything at once.

One belief I need to receive more deeply:

One way I want to become more attentive to Jesus:

The next faithful step I sense for this week:

My Next Faithful Step

Choose one, or adapt a report invitation.

- Pray honestly for five minutes each day, without editing yourself.
- Read a short Gospel passage daily and ask, "What do I notice about Jesus?"
- Start a gratitude list with one specific item each day.
- Bring a present challenge to Jesus: "Show me how to respond with trust."
- Set aside fifteen minutes for worship, silence, or prayerful walking.

CLOSING PRAYER

Jesus, receive our trust and our uncertainty. Help us recognize your love and respond to your presence in ordinary moments. Amen.

I will practise:

I will do this on:

I will ask this person to encourage me:

JOURNEY GUIDE NOTE

Celebrate effort, not only results. If someone missed a practice, ask: "What did you notice, and how might you begin again?" Do not imply that hardship or unanswered prayer means inadequate faith.

03

Reflecting Jesus

Jesus' character becomes visible through ordinary choices, relationships, forgiveness, and shared life.

THIS WEEK

Choose one way for Jesus' love to become visible in everyday life.

Notice

Receive

Reflect

Serve

Read, notice, and share

OPENING PRACTICE

In silence, ask: "Jesus, where do you want your love to become more visible through me?"

Read Colossians 3:12–17

Which quality in this passage speaks to your everyday relationships? What might it look like in one ordinary moment?

NOTICE

Reflecting Jesus includes expressing God's love, practising faith in daily life, journeying with others, and reconciling through receiving and extending forgiveness.

LOOK BACK

What did you practise? What did you notice? There is no need for an impressive result.

Discuss

- 01 Where do you most want the love of Jesus to shape your everyday responses?
- 02 What relationship or setting most challenges you to reflect Jesus?
- 03 What kind of support from others would make faithful growth more possible?

Make it personal

RETURN TO YOUR REPORT

Read one invitation in the Reflecting section of your report. Consider a response that fits your actual relationships, capacity, and safety.

A GENTLE INVITATION

Write a few honest words. You can keep the same pathway throughout these four weeks. You do not need to improve everything at once.

A relationship or situation I want to bring to Jesus:

One way I want to express love more intentionally:

A conversation, apology, boundary, or act of forgiveness I need to consider:

My Next Faithful Step

Choose one, or adapt a report invitation.

- Offer specific encouragement to someone.
- Listen to someone without preparing your response.
- Take one step toward reconciliation, if it is safe and wise.
- Ask a trusted person to pray with you about a recurring pattern.
- Perform an unnoticed act of kindness.

CLOSING PRAYER

Holy Spirit, form the character of Jesus in us. Give us courage, gentleness, patience, and love. Amen.

I will practise:

I will do this on:

I will ask this person to encourage me:

JOURNEY GUIDE NOTE

Do not push for details of a painful relationship. Forgiveness does not require renewed contact, immediate trust, or remaining in harm. A safe boundary or seeking qualified support may be the faithful next step.

04

Serving Jesus

Growth with Jesus moves outward as we participate in his work of renewal, compassion, generosity, and justice.

THIS WEEK

Leave with hope, a realistic 30-day practice, and support to begin.

Notice

Receive

Reflect

Serve

Read, notice, and share

OPENING PRACTICE

Pray: "Jesus, show me where you are already at work, and teach me to join you."

Read Mark 10:42–45; Micah 6:8

What do these passages suggest about power, humility, and service? What could a small response look like where you already live?

NOTICE

Serving Jesus includes partnering with God, stewarding resources, showing compassion, and acting justly.

LOOK BACK

What did you practise? What did you notice? There is no need for an impressive result.

Discuss

- 01 Where do you see a need in your everyday world that moves your heart?
- 02 Which resource might Jesus invite you to steward differently: time, energy, ability, relationships, home, money, or influence?
- 03 What would it look like to take one faithful next step rather than trying to solve everything?

Make it personal

RETURN TO YOUR REPORT

Review the Serving section, then look back over your whole report. Your 30-day focus can come from any of the sixteen pathways.

A GENTLE INVITATION

Write a few honest words. You can keep the same pathway throughout these four weeks. You do not need to improve everything at once.

A need, person, or place God has put on my heart:

A resource I can offer:

One act of compassion, generosity, service, or justice I can take in the next month:

My Next Faithful Step

Choose one, or adapt a report invitation.

- Ask a neighbour what practical help would genuinely be useful.
- Set aside a realistic amount of time or money to share.
- Listen to someone whose experience differs from yours.
- Learn about one local need and take a practical, respectful action.

CLOSING PRAYER

Jesus, form your life in me. Help me to take this next step with humility, courage, and trust. Amen.

I will practise:

I will do this on:

I will ask this person to encourage me:

JOURNEY GUIDE NOTE

Honour different resources, cultures, abilities, and seasons of life. Service is not a competition. Help each person leave with a sustainable practice and a willing companion.

My 30-Day Jesus Journey Practice

Choose any pathway. Make the action small enough for your real life, not an ideal week.

The pathway I am focusing on:

The practice I will repeat:

When and how often I will practise it:

A likely obstacle:

Grace for the Next Step

Ask your companion's permission. A missed day is an invitation to begin again, not a verdict.

How I will respond when I miss a day or struggle:

My Journey Companion:

Our first check-in date:

My prayer:

Jesus, form your life in me. Help me to take this next step with humility, courage, and trust. Amen.

Keep Walking

You do not need to become someone else before you can grow.

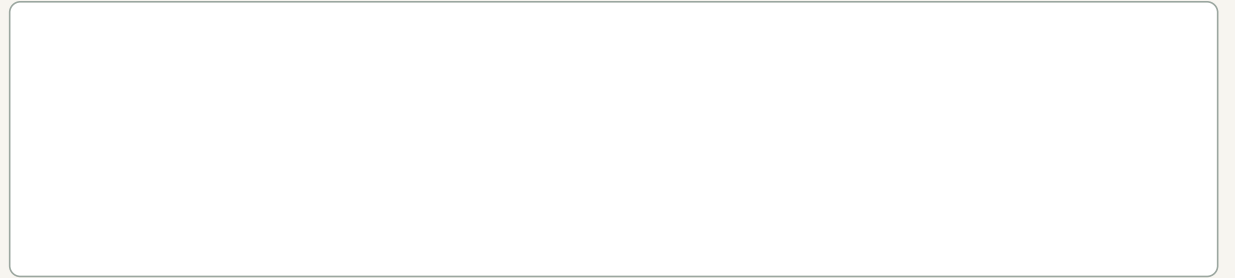

Jesus meets you in your real life, gives grace for the next step, and forms you over time.

Take the step in front of you.

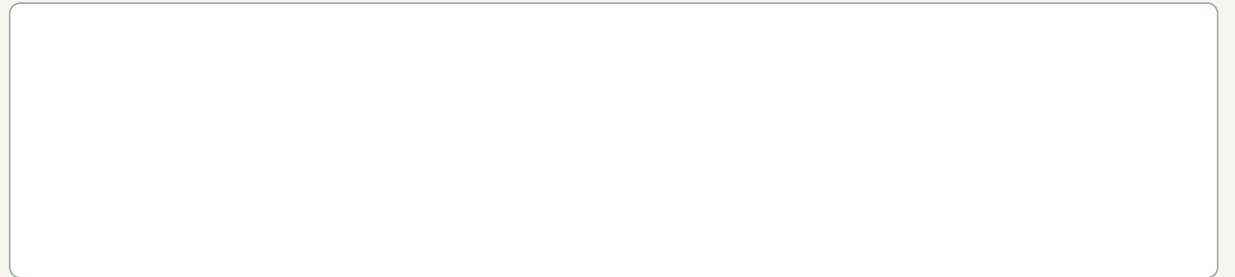

Walk with others.

Begin again whenever you need to.

Where do you now have more hope than you did four weeks ago?

What is one growth step you now feel able, with Jesus' help, to take?

Journey Companion Check-In

KEEP THE CONNECTION

What did you notice?
